

BIO
Tom Kibler

Tom is retired from several decades as a commercial insurance broker-consultant, a securities broker, and in strategy fields of marketing, sales and management in the mortgage industry for GMAC, RFC, novastar, WMC, Wells Fargo and more. Tom was forced to permanently retire due to disabilities caused from fighting criminals/forged documents/attempted theft of his home for 8 years. He ended up with 2 emergency open heart surgeries for a near fatal, stress induced aortic dissection (an aneurism above his heart, that ripped instead of bursting-which would have killed him instantly. After years of recovery and rehabilitation he continues to be involved with the many other victims of the insidious, targeted crimes often involving our public servants who swear to protect us and our rights. Before Tom retired he suspected much fraud/wrongdoing and through recovery has proven his suspicions.
