

Irene Reichenbach BIO

Irene brings more than 20 years of experience spanning civil and criminal law, supported by a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Criminal Justice with a minor in Psychology. She previously served as a Guardian ad Litem for the State of South Carolina, advocating for children with no voice and addressing cases involving abuse, neglect, and sex trafficking.

Beginning in 2015, Irene served as a Field Director and Columbia headquarters staffer for the Trump Campaign in South Carolina. After relocating to Tennessee in 2019, she became the Republican Party Chair in Smith County. Irene officially retired in 2023 and transitioned into humanitarian service, supporting communities in Western North Carolina and, most recently, assisting with response efforts following the July 4–5 floods in Texas.

Grounded in lifelong values, Irene emphasizes that integrity, honesty, and loyalty matter, principles instilled by her mother, who taught her to protect her integrity and never allow anyone to undermine it.

She aligned with Toll and Roll <sup>TM</sup> and as of January 2026 she made her first trip to D.C. as a Delegate. She is a vital member of the team and looks forward to helping get The People's Remedy and Restoration Act-The New Declaration of Independence 2025 sponsored and passed.
